

When you lose someone you love.

When you lose someone you love, you lose a part of yourself, a part of yourself used to the love, given by someone else.

When you lose someone you love,
you become speechless,
due to the tightness
in your chest.

When you lose someone you love, you will never be the same again, life will never feel the same again.

When you lose someone you love, you'll realise that anything can change, so quickly, so abruptly, so violently, so suddenly, everything around you becomes so strange.

When you lose someone you love, you will look for that person in others, however none of them will replace that person that matters, yet you know they've got this special place deep into your mind,

deep into your heart,
you'd like to go back in time,
back to the start,

relive all these memories again,
imprint them,
deep into your soul,
for you to feel whole.

When you lose someone you love, life will be shattered at first, yet it will give you the thirst to be alive in a different way, hoping that person is now ok.
